Cash-back rewards for energy-efficient clothes washers*

Iowa customers who purchase an ENERGY STAR® qualified clothes washer could earn $50 to $100 in cash-back rewards from Alliant Energy. But first, we need to know what kind of water heater and dryer you have, and who provides the fuel to those appliances.

Why the water heater and dryer? Because ENERGY STAR clothes washers save energy in two ways:

- They use less water – this reduces the amount of hot water used in the wash cycle, which reduces the energy used by the water heater to heat it.
- They spin faster during the spin cycle – this extracts more water from the clothes, which means less time and energy in the dryer.

How much will I get back?

The two tables below can help you determine your cash-back reward. Alliant Energy must provide the main source of energy for either the water heater or the clothes dryer in order to qualify for a cash-back reward.

Water heater is powered by:	Reward from Alliant Energy:
Electricity or natural gas from Alliant Energy	$50
Power from another utility or source	$0

Dryer is powered by:	Reward from Alliant Energy:
Electricity or natural gas from Alliant Energy	$50
Power from another utility or source	$0

- If Alliant Energy provides the power to your dryer or water heater, you can earn $50.
- If Alliant Energy provides power to your dryer AND water heater, you'll receive $100.
- If another utility provides your electricity or natural gas, contact that utility for information on their clothes washer rebates.
